As you can see, lots going on both in and out of school.

As I write this, I'm looking at a wonderful array of costumes throughout the school celebrating 'World Book Day' - from Alice in Wonderland to Willy Wonka and Where's Wally! (and everything in between...)

We also had groups join in the annual Pancake Race around Wimborne Minster on Tuesday, a great community event.

Admissions Panel next week, nearly 40 referrals, you'll remember it well...

Have a great weekend.
