Newsletter: Week ending 24th January 2020

Happy New Year everyone! We are in full swing to our new term and new year. The Beaucroft's Got Talent buzz has already commenced with the shows going live week before half term.

Yesterday we welcomed Councillor Andrew Parry to the school and enjoyed the opportunity to show our new building and indulge in some fine dining at the Beaucroft Post 16 RAFA café.

Thank you on behalf of all at Beaucroft to the John Thornton Young Achievers Foundation for another very generous donation. Staff will, as always, consider creative ways to benefit the children. In recent years we have used donations to fund:

- A Marwell Zookeeper day experience
- A visiting chocolatier
- A specialised trike
- A subsidised Eurodisney trip
- Henry the therapy dog!!!

Please note this will be the final paper edition of the newsletter. All newsletters are available on the website and will be distributed via the school gateway app (please see our website or contact the office if you require support with this).

Important Date Change!

To enable important staff training, the start date for the next academic year has been brought forward. Pupils will now start back on Wednesday 2nd September 2020.

Advance warning that our Extended Services team will be holding another family friendly session at Monkey Madness during the half-term break. It will be on Monday 17th February. More details will follow in a letter...

Reminder: Parents' Consultation Evening—March 12th

Coffee Drop-in for all Parents, in the Haven at Beaucroft:

Monday 3rd February 9am-11am

As the weather is now colder do remember that we will contact you via the SchoolGateway App, or text message for those who have yet to sign up to inform of any school closures. We will also update our website.
