Wow - what a half term!

It's been a fun packed few weeks with many classes enjoying learning opportunities beyond the classroom with pumpkin picking, a drop off at Wimborne food bank and a College visit to Bournemouth University to see the Art University's latest gallery to name a few.

Highlights today include our popular Masked Singer event and afternoon football match involving school and college players.

Bingo - thank you to everyone who supported our event yesterday evening. It was a packed house as usual, generating funds for Friends of Beaucroft. Lovely to see so many former students returning!

Today is Neil Palmer's last day at Beaucroft as he is retiring with Henry the therapy dog. Neil has been with us many years and has worked across the school and college supporting countless pupils - his calm, caring manner will be much missed. Thank you to Neil for introducing us to the world of therapy dogs and for bringing Henry into the Beaucroft family. Henry will always be best in class and has secured Beaucroft legend status - thank you!

Happy half term everyone!
Diane / Joe
